Mama Teaches Me

MTM Ramadan: Ramadan Planning Guide

A fun and interactive way to teach your children during Ramadan!

Thank you for purchasing our Mama Teaches Me Ramadan Planning Guide.

The aim of this guide is for parents to focus in on Islamic Studies or instilling the love of Islam in our children during the month of Ramadan. This is where we can help. Use our tried and tested resources that we have structured in a way to make it easy for you to teach your children throughout the month. The ideas in this guide will help you pick what is best suited to your child's learning and interest. Remember you don't need to do it all!

This resource was created for our Ramadan Series. We've put together key resources from our membership that we recommend. Decide on the area/theme you want to focus on this Ramadan and then click the links to find the resource.

In order for small businesses like ours to thrive, we would love to hear your feedback. Send us a review by emailing us

Ramadan with Allah's Names

Start The 99 Names of Allah Project this Ramadan our new The 99 Names of Allah Workbook. We highly recommend using Jenny's Atlas of Al Asma Ul Husna.

The 99 Names of Allah Project

- Using the Atlas of Al Asma ul Husna Book, work through a name of Allah daily in the month of Ramadan as a whole family.
- Record your art work, funfacts and duas in The 99 Names of Allah workbook.
- You can begin this project in Rajab and complete it in Ramadan.
- Or you can simply begin in Ramadan daily and continue at your own pace aiming to complete the book by Dhul Hijjah at the latest.
- For further prompts follow along with @jenny.molendyk on social media.
- Tag us on Instagram @mamateachesme to share your work!

Ramadan Seerah Series

Focus on different stages of the Seerah over the 4 weeks of Ramadan.
Use The Seerah Project to aid you in your Seerah Study.

Ramadan Prophet's Stories

Choose a Prophet of Allah to focus on this Ramadan. What lessons can you learn from the stories Allah reminds us in the Quran? Pick from one of our Stories of the Prophets Resource packs below to learn over the month of Ramadan.

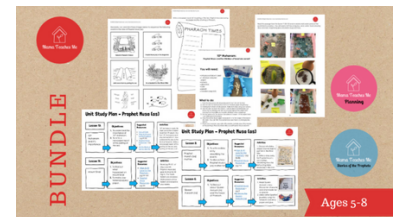

Lessons from Prophet Yusuf (as)

This Series is perfect for the older children aged 8–10 years old. It covers stories and lessons from the life of Prophet Yusuf (as).

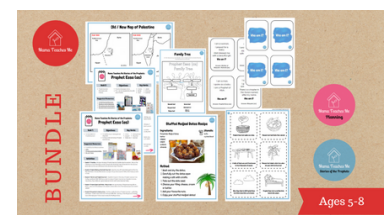

Lessons from Prophet Musa (as)

Our popular Prophet Musa study will be enjoyed by your 5–8 year olds, with fun and creative activities that were loved by my girls too.

Lessons from Prophet Eesa (as)

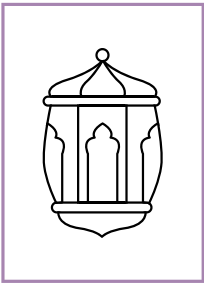

Enjoy learning more about the miracles of Prophet Eesa (as) through this study with creative activities games, crafts and even recipes to follow!

Lessons from Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)

20 lessons with The Seerah Project – enough to cover daily for the month of Ramadan – worked together as a whole family. There's something for everything.

Ramadan Role Models

Dive into the stories of role models from our Islamic History. Choose a new story each week of Ramadan and focus in on what makes these role models so special. What lessons can we learn from them? Perfect story and colouring activities for your children aged 5–10 year olds.

Be Brave like Queen Aasiyah

Read the story of Queen Aasiyah, her significant role and how she became Muslim. What made her so brave?

Be loyal like Khadijah bint Khuwaylid

Read the story of the wife of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). What made her so loyal and special?

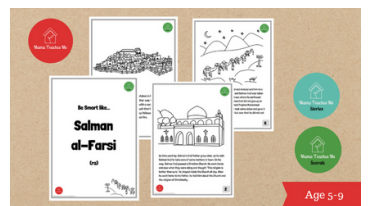

Be courageous like Nusaybah Umm Ammarah

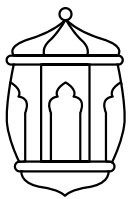

Read the story of the courage of Nusaybah Umm Ammarah. What role did she play in the life of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)?

Be Smart like Salman al-Farsi

Read the story of Salman al-Farsi. How did he become Muslim? What made him so smart?

Ramadan Companions Series

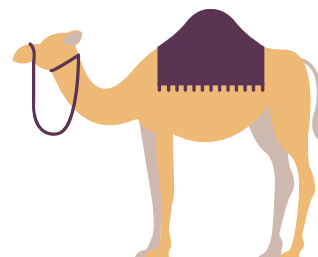

Teach your children our rich Islamic History through the study of and key companions of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) week by week in the month of Ramadan. This is a great follow up from a Seerah study with older children aged 9–11. Download the unit study here.

1

Abu Bakr as-Siddiq (ra)
